

BOOKSTORE

PUBLIC ACCESS 101: DOWNTOWN L.A.

CRITICAL CAMPOUT

Campground located at MOCA Grand Avenue

 Upper Campground Path

 Lower Campground Path

ACTIVITIES AT CAMPGROUND

- 1 Welcome Station
7-10pm, Entry Plaza
Orient to the MOCA campground and the Downtown L.A. trail system via a topographic model and map.
- 2 Habitation Station
7-9pm, Entry Plaza
Learn about habitation options in Downtown L.A.
- 3 Overnight Campground (reservations only)
7-10pm, Upper Plaza (campsite set-up until 8pm)
For campers with confirmed reservations, visit the check-in station.
- 4 LADWP Water Bar
7-10pm, Upper Plaza
Rehydrate by tasting City of Los Angeles blends of fine local and imported water.
- 5 Alternative Tent-Making
7-9pm, Upper Plaza
Explore alternative habitation construction through collective tent-making.
- 6 Campfire Programs
Lower Courtyard and Exhibition Spaces
7:00-8:00pm: Los Angeles Poverty Department inhabitants share stories from the Skid Row ecosystem.
8:15-9:00pm: Downtown Ecotone Trail hikers reflect on their backcountry experience.
9:00-9:45pm: Discuss habitation ordinances with Becky Dennison of the Los Angeles Community Action Network.
- 7 Meet the Rangers Video Screening
7-9pm, Underground Auditorium
Experience Los Angeles Urban Rangers in action in Downtown L.A. with highlights from our previous summer programs.

The Los Angeles Urban Rangers are pleased to collaborate with the Los Angeles Poverty Department (LAPD) to offer this special evening of hikes and campfire programs. For more information about LAPD, please visit www.lapovertydept.org. For more information about the Los Angeles Urban Rangers, please visit www.laurbanrangers.org.