

WHAT IS THE L.A. RIVER?

Define the L.A. River in your own words.

Match these definitions of the L.A. River to their sources.

___ A beautiful river [in] a spacious valley with cottonwoods.	A. City of L.A. Master Plan
___ The city's greatest attraction.	B. State Assemblyman Richard Katz
___ A [potential] commuter expressway and truck thoroughfare.	C. Father Juan Crespí
___ The welcome mat home to the Eastside.	D. William Mulholland
___ The river we built.	E. Friends of the LA River
___ A way to unify the city.	F. Huell Howser
___ Not a sewer!	G. U.S. Army Corps of Engineers
___ The Rodney Dangerfield of waterways.	H. Mayor Antonio Villaraigosa
___ The city's sole source of water for more than a century.	I. Blake Gumprecht
___ The soul of the City.	J. James Rojas
___ A source of habitat restoration, recharged aquifers, enlightened urban development, job creation, and civic pride.	K. NPR

C, D, B, J, G, H, F, K, I, A, E

Los Angeles Urban Rangers
www.laurbanrangers.org

Public Access 101: Downtown L.A.
Los Angeles, California
2011

Thank you to The Museum of Contemporary Art, Los Angeles for its generous support and to the Santa Monica Mountains Conservancy and KCET for their contributions.
© Los Angeles Urban Rangers, 2011